

“Creating a Professional Portfolio: Showcasing Your Teaching Strengths”

3 Semester Hours of Graduate Credit

This course is designed to help you extend the application of what you learned in your previously taken QEP course while gaining experience in the creation of a professional portfolio. The portfolio development guidelines in this course are aligned with the standards set by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards. In the process of creating your portfolios, you will learn how to effectively describe, analyze, and reflect upon instructional units.

You may enroll in this new course if you:

- have previously taken any other QEP video course, or
- are currently enrolling in another QEP video course.

IN THIS COURSE, YOU WILL LEARN HOW TO:

- create an impressive portfolio that celebrates your teaching strengths.
- create and teach powerful lessons that will improve student behavior and achievement.
- collect archives that document your teaching achievements.
- reflect on your teaching experience and plan for improved lessons and learning.

This course will help you to develop a professional portfolio that can be a vehicle for career-long professional development and a source of personal satisfaction. This course is aligned with standards adopted by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards and can be a first step toward national certification.
